En-rout visit BUDURUWAGALA

Buduruwagala is located about 5 km from the Wellawaya on the Thanamalwila road. The name Buduruwagala means "the rock with the statue of Buddha" And this is exactly what it is. Seven figures are carved in this rock with a massive 51 foot Buddha statue in the Abhaya Mudra gesture at the centre. The rock itself has the shape of a kneeling elephant with its head down. Although there is no documented information about this site in the ancient scriptures, it is now believed these carvings were done during the last days of the Anuradhapura period. (Between 8 - 10 Century). These carvings are of the Mahayana Buddhist style and similar to the statues at Dowa Temple.

The tallest Buddha statue in the world was the Bamiyan Buddha statues in Afghanistan until the destruction of this ancient monument by the Taliban in March 2001. The Buduruwagala Buddha Statue is now considered the tallest in the world.
